

The Fifth Annual
Foucault Circle

February 18-20, 2005
Rollins College
Orlando, FL

Friday, February 18

7:00-10:00 Welcome Buffet and Reception (French House lounge)

Saturday, February 19

8:30-9:00 Continental Breakfast

9:00-10:45 Politics, War and Governmentality

Bethany Dunn (University of Memphis): "Governmentality and the mythic power of individual rights"

Marcelo Hoffman (University of Denver): "Foucault's politics and bellicosity as a matrix for power relations"

Richard A. Lynch (Boston College): "The limitations of 'war': Boulainvilliers and Foucauldian analysis of power"

Margaret A. McLaren (Rollins College), moderator

11:15-12:25 Theory in Practice: Contemporary Interventions

Trent Hamann (St. John's University): "Life under the right of death and power: Foucault and contemporary American neoliberalism"

Jeffrey Nealon (Penn State University): "The financial Foucault: biopower and finance capital"

Ed McGushin (St. Anselm College), moderator

12:25-2:30 Lunch (on your own—local restaurants)

2:30-4:15 The Thought of the Outside

Erinn Gilson (University of Memphis): "Topographies of the non-place: structure and experience in Deleuze and Foucault"

Rex Gilliland (Southern Connecticut State University): "Foucault's principle of transformation"

Len Lawlor (University of Memphis): "Un ecart infime (part 3): the blind spot in Foucault"

Todd May (Clemson University), moderator

4:45-5:55 Care of the Self

Corey McCall (Southern Illinois University): "Foucault's alleged romanticism"

Alain Beaulieu (McGill University): "Speculations over Foucault's later 'politico-poetics'"

Ladelle McWhorter (University of Richmond), moderator

7:00-9:00 Dinner and Business Meeting (at a local restaurant TBA)

Sunday, February 20

8:30-9:00 Continental Breakfast

9:00-10:10 Method and Knowledge

Kevin Thompson (DePaul University): "Historicity and Transcendentality: Foucault's Methodology"

Brad Elliot Stone (Loyola Marymount University): "Subjugated knowledges in the age of the world picture: Foucault, Heidegger, and the role of genealogy (from an archaeological point of view)"

Benjamin S. Pryor (University of Toledo), moderator

10:30-11:40 Subjectivity

Cressida Heyes (University of Alberta): "An ethics of embodiment: after normalization"

Frances Latchford (York University): "Blood simple: a short genealogy of the adopted subject"

Darrell Moore (DePaul University), moderator

All paper sessions will be in the Faculty Club.

Additional information is available at our website:

<http://www.siu.edu/~foucault>