

Transportation and housing for the Foucault Circle 2014

Flight info to Foucault Circle 2014 at Malmö University, Sweden

We strongly recommend that you book your flight to Copenhagen International Airport, (CPH, Kastrup)

Trains and tickets from Copenhagen Int. Airport (CPH, Kastrup) to Malmö

The best and fastest way to get from the Copenhagen International Airport to Malmö Central Station is by train over Öresundsbron, the bridge between Copenhagen and Malmö.

The train will take you all the way to Malmö University, located right next to the Central Station (train ride is approx 25-30 minutes from airport-to-Malmö downtown). The trains depart 1 staircase down from the Arrival hall at CPH.

Trains depart every 20 minutes to Malmö Central Station

Train schedule, go to the website for Travel Planner/ "Reseplaneraren"

Search: Go from CPH airport to Malmö Central Station:

You can save money by buying a Duo/Family ticket good for two adults.

Housing/Hotels in downtown Malmö

Malmö University is located just by the water, a few minutes walk away from downtown Malmö. This is where you find hotels, shops, restaurants and cafés. You don't have to use any other transportation to get around for the conference.

Hotel breakfast:

For the Foucault Circle 2014 we recommend Moment hotels and Scandic Hotel Sankt Jörgen for your stay in Malmö.

We have arranged with discount prices available for reservation for conference participants. These preferred hotels, as most other Swedish hotels, serve international breakfasts, usually included in the price. Both our hotels are located within a 5 min walking distance from the University (conference location) as well as the Central station. Below you find the reference codes to use for reservation.
